DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-96 are presented for examination.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-15, drawn to an information recording device for recording three-dimensional information, classified in class 345, subclass 419.
 - II. Claims 16-26, 27-37 and 38-48, drawn to a measuring device with medium and measuring method of measuring three-dimensional information, classified in class 345, subclass 653.
 - III. Claims 49-63, 64-78 and 79-93, drawn to an information processing device for reading out measured data from an information recording device, classified in class 713, subclass 161.
3. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I, II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as an information recording device for recording three-dimensional information; invention II has separate utility such as a measuring device with medium and measuring method of measuring three-dimensional information; invention III has separate utility such as an information processing device for reading out measured data from an information recording device. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for one group is not required for any other groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Claims 94, 95 and 96 link groups I, II and III. The restriction requirement among the linked inventions is subject to the nonallowance of the linking claim(s), claims 94, 95 and 96. Upon the allowance of the linking claim(s), the restriction requirement as to the linked inventions shall be withdrawn and any claim(s) depending from or otherwise including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) will be entitled to examination in the instant application. Applicant(s) are advised that if any such claim(s) depending from or including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) is/are presented in a continuation or divisional application, the claims of the continuation or divisional application may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. In re Ziegler, 44 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01.
